Like the weather, everyone complains about the lack of good, trained technicians. But who is doing something about it?

Several of our member companies, that's who.

One way to meet job candidates is to go where they are. The photos show Haltco's massive exhibit at a recent job fair.

The daylong event, south of Seneca Falls at the site of Empire Farm Days, was sponsored by the Finger Lakes Workforce Investment Board. Each region has such an agency to help train and retrain workers.
